

ACTOR YEAR END REVIEW

2017, here we come!

Most of us set goals for the New Year without truly reflecting on the experiences of the past year. You're a business... so take a moment to give yourself an annual review. Reflect on what worked and what didn't work this year so you can totally ROCK 2017!

#1

Make a list of the 20 most influential events of the year for your career....

List the good, bad, embarrassing and life-changing! No judgements!

Feeling Stuck? These moments can be about.... auditions, agents, managers, casting directors, networking, your 'showbusiness', contracts, income, fitness, weight loss! Anything that impacts your career!

HIGHLIGHT the moments in GREEN that worked and got you closer to your goals this last year!

HIGHLIGHT the moments in RED that didn't work! These are the events that took you further from your goals!

HIGHLIGHT anything that still needs work in YELLOW ! These are the areas that need growth or re-working!

#2

ANALYZE, CELEBRATE & LEARN FROM YOUR RESULTS!

Look at your GREENS from 2016.... Woo hoo! Applaud your successes and think back to the steps that helped you achieve them!

Look at your REDS from 2016.... What projects, moments and events of the last year took you off-track from meeting your goals. Acknowledge these missteps and learn from them. How can they be turned into a GREEN next year?

Check out those YELLOWS from 2016. Can you turn any of these into GREENS by committing a little more, planning better or changing your strategy next year?

LOOK OVER EVERYTHING ABOVE. If you could accomplish just ONE career goal next year what would it be? Maybe it's taking one GREEN even further or turning one of your YELLOWS to GREEN.

Take your ONE big goal and make a list of the short term goals you must achieve to attain it!

Short term achievements keep us motivated and on track to reach our long term goals!

NOW that you've learned from 2016 and set goals for next year...

Let's ROCK 2017!
